Separate Peace Between United States and Germany

PRESIDENT HARDING HAS NOT YET UNDERTAKEN ANY SERIOUS DISCUSSION WITH THE REPUBLICAN LEADERS OF SENATE

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 19.—While President Harding has not yet undertaken any serious discussions of the peace situation with Republican leaders of the senate, there is a widespread belief among them that conditions are so shaping up that a separate peace between the United States and Germany is going to prove the only way out of the treaty tangle.

Nothing definite will be done in the matter of shaping up a program until it is seen what propositions the foreign envoys have to offer. M. Viviani, the French representative is due to arrive in Washington before the opening of the new congress to plead the cause of the league. He probably will be followed by representatives of other countries.

President Harding himself has emphasized that he is not taking up seriously the treaty tangle with his erstwhile colleagues on the senate foreign relations committee. He has nevertheless discussed the question generally and informally with several senators and they have come away from the White House convinced that Harding will never re-submit the treaty and therewith the covenant without it, with or without Article 10.

It is generally believed in Washington that M. Viviani is coming to the United States to suggest to President Harding that the senate take up the treaty and ratify it with any changes it sees fit, but ratify it some way or other so as to preserve an outward semblance at least of the war time solidarity of the great powers.

If M. Viviani does make some concrete proposals along these lines, it is the belief of a number of influential Republican senators that they will be turned down at the White House.

The status of the Knox resolution declaring at an end the state of war with Germany is unsettled. It will not be introduced, however, until there is some clarification of the Rhine situation. While present indications make a separate peace appear not unlikely there is no desire on the part of either the White House or the senate to provide Germany with any moral support by widening the Franco-British-American breach just when military maneuvers are in progress again. The Knor resolution for the present has been pigeonholed. It may be pulled out at any time, or it may stay there, depending upon the turn of events.

C. OF C. INDUSTRIAL COMMITTEE MEETS

Two Manufacturing Projects Brought to Consideration of the Members

The industrial committee, one of the most important committees appointed by the directorate of the Chamber of Commerce, met for organization at chamber headquarters Friday night, with all members present, viz., W. E. Hewitt, chairman, and T. W. Watson, H. M. Butts, W. E. Evans and L. T. Rowley. L. T. Rowley was made secretary of the committee.

Messrs. Park and Gray addressed the committee on behalf of the Hydro-Stone company, which is seeking a manufacturing location and stock subscriptions. The proposition was discussed and while the product was approved as something which could be advantageously made in this city, the committee took no action.

Harry M. Miller appeared before the committee on behalf on O. M. Bruess who is seeking a location for a factory to make auto tires. The secretary was instructed to get in touch with Mr. Bruess, which he has already done, and Mr. Bruess has accepted an invitation to appear before the committee at a joint session with the directorate next Tuesday, to explain his project in detail.

THE "PILL BOTTLE" WELL RECEIVED

The Young People of the Baptist church have cause to congratulate themselves; and the large audience who heard them last night at the church have cause to join in the congratulations. The four-act play was presented without a hitch anywhere, and was highly commended by all who heard it. The beautiful story of what the Great Physician is doing in all the world for the sick and dying, through those who are His helpers, was shown in a very real way. Each one taking part in the play had caught the spirit of what the author meant, and the result was most pleasing. All went away with a greater sense of the power of the Gospel of Christ, and of the great work being done on the foreign fields by our medical missionaries. The play may be repeated in the near future.

JUNIORS HOSTS AT DANCING PARTY

One of the most delightful affairs ever given by a class in the high school was the dance in the high school boys' gymnasium last evening at which the junior class acted as hosts.

About 100 couples enjoyed the pleasures of the wonderful evening. The committee in charge of the dance was: Bob White, Dale Wood, Evelyn Gregg, Florence Gower and Phillips Henderson. All worked in perfect co-operation, which made it a splendid success.

Gene James Ragadores furnished the music, which was praised most highly. The programs were in green and white in honor of St. Patrick and were quite novel.

The dance was chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. George U. Moyse, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Hayhurst, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cookman, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Huntley, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Toll, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. White, Mrs. Charles E. Hutchinson and Miss Mona E. Gardner.

SPECIAL ORDER FROM ADJUTANT GENERAL

Adjutant General Borree of the State of California, under date of March 14, issued an order transferring to Fifth Separate Company Infantry (the Glendale organization) the following members of the National Guard: Edwin W. Hambley, Herbert D. Miller, Millard W. Young, Otto P. Miller.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH DINNER

Women's Missionary Society Entertains 85 Guests With Pleasant Function

It seemed entirely appropriate that the missionary dinner served at the Congregational church, Thursday night, should be featured by decorations in St. Patrick colors, for St. Patrick was a great missionary and went to Ireland for uplift work and not simply to banish the snakes there. Covers were laid for about 85 and a delicious Irish repast was served. When the plates had been cleared away Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, president of the Women's Missionary Society introduced Charles Guthrie as toastmaster. He at once began calling upon guests for Irish stories and the responses caused much merriment. The pastor, Charles W. Calderwood, talked on the necessity and the value to a church of doing its full share in missionary work. Louis Abell and Blake Franklin contributed much enjoyed Irish songs and the affair was voted a great success from every viewpoint.

JINKS PROGRAM AT AMERICAN LEGION

Boxing Bouts and Readings Entertain Audience Numbering About 250

A big audience numbering not less than 250 crowded the hall of the Glendale Post, American Legion, Friday night, to enjoy the jinks program of entertainment arranged by the committee of which Gordon Clayton is chairman. It included three boxing bouts, the first between Young Kendig and Kid Hodge (118 pounds); the next between "Battling" McCrary and Ralph Meyers (133 pounds); the third between Johnny Meyers and Walter Dodge (145 pounds). There were no decisions, it was simply an exhibition of boxing. Between bouts Joe Griffin entertained the company with an original "Fight Story" and other numbers. Visitors were present from Tejunga, Burbank and San Fernando. Buron Fitts, state commander was to have been a guest, but was prevented from coming by illness.

The post has decided to have open meetings at which boxing exhibitions will be given once a month to which members can bring their friends. The next one will take place April 22.

Announcement was also made of the dance which will be given by the post March 26.

FOOTHILL CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. PRIEST

That congenial group of ladies known as The Foothill Club were the guests yesterday afternoon at their regular monthly meeting of Mrs. Albert Priest, 1422 North Central avenue.

Sweetpeas and other spring blossoms intermingled with ferns adorned the rooms where Mrs. Priest received her guests, and the making of Easter hats of crepe paper was the principal diversion of the afternoon.

Mrs. Louise Dresser Gardner was a special guest of the club. Dainty refreshments were served in the late afternoon hours. Mrs. E. B. Wyman won the prize for the most artistic hat.

A SERIES OF LENTEN LECTURES

Rev. Mr. Webb of Los Angeles, who has been giving a series of Lenten lectures at St. Mark's Episcopal church will deliver there tomorrow evening a pantomime sermon and lecture illustrative of his work among deaf mutes, showing, among other things, how they say the Lord's Prayer, how they sing and how he preaches to them.

Pastor M. Mallin, eminent Scotch minister and organizer of the One-by-One Working Band, will speak before the Men's Bible Class of the Glendale Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 9:30 a. m. Mrs. Fannie Marple Retts will sing. In view of the coming evangelistic campaign it is to be hoped that a large representation of Glendale men will be present.

OLD AGREEMENTS HALT TRUSTEES

Mr. Dutcher Charges Injustice in Withdrawal of Light and Water Service

Thursday evening city trustees were called upon to consider whether the action they had taken at a previous meeting forbidding water service to residents outside the city boundaries would be retroactive. They were addressed by Mr. Dutcher who explained that five years ago he entered into an agreement with the city for light and water service in a 22-acre tract he was undertaking to improve. The agreement provided that he was to be to the expense of installing the service and be reimbursed by the city in installments. He stated that he had expended $10,000 to $12,000 under that agreement and had been paid $700 by the city and now he understood the city was repudiating its agreement as regards service to lots not yet connected with the system and all his business operations had been brought to a halt because he could not undertake to sell lots on which he could not guarantee light and water service such as their neighbors enjoyed. President Stephenson assured Mr. Dutcher the board had no disposition to repudiate any of the agreements entered into by its predecessors. The matter was referred to the committee of the whole with instructions to City Manager Watson to give the board copies of the agreement.

CHAPTER B. A. MET WITH MRS. CROSS

Delightful entertainment was provided for members of Chapter B. A. of the P. E. O., at the all-day meeting Friday at the home of Mrs. Beryl Cross, 329 Pioneer drive. A business session preceded the delicious luncheon served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Hallie Stamps and Mrs. Fern Clark. The program which followed the luncheon included a paper on the modern drama by Josephine Brantt, a group of English dances played by Mrs. Eva Cunningham, and a paper on the artistic in nature in California by Mrs. Pauline Russell. Little Margaret Brown and Sara Chandler gave a charming dance which had been specially arrnged for them by Mrs. Charles L. Chandler. It was so much enjoyed that an encore was demanded.

number of guests were present: Miss Lucile Tholen, Mrs. Cora Ramsay, Mrs. Alida Bartlett of Toledo and Mrs. Charles L. Chandler. Mrs. Mabel Parker also brought her wee daughter, Lois, to be introduced to the chapter.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR THE BOWERS

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leash were guests Thursday evening at a surprise party given for their daughter Violet, who became the bride of E. E. Bowers last Tuesday, at the Broadway Christian church. The party took place at the home of the bridegroom's mother who, in recognition of the floral name of her daughter-in-law, had lavishly decorated with violets. Between 25 and 30 friends of the newly-weds, most of them members of the Christian Endeavor of the Broadway church were present and Rev. Sullivan who married them was also a guest. Mr. Leach states that his daughter and son-in-law will make their home in Los Angeles.

COMEDY PROGRAM AT PALACE GRAND

The "tired business man" and also his weary wife will forget all care and worry at the Palace Grand today, where an all-comedy bill is featured.

The chief attraction is Mack Sennett's six-part comedy, "A Small Town Idol," melodramatic, spectacular and very funny. This is Mack Sennett's greatest production since "Micky." It is said to be the greatest production ever conceived by the comedy king.

Glendale Music Club Now Has a Large Membership

AN ENTHUSIASTIC AND PROFITABLE MEETING WAS HELD IN THE MUSIC ROOM OF THE HIGH SCHOOL LAST NIGHT

Enthusiastic and very profitable was meeting of the Glendale Music Club held in the music room of the high school last evening, Mrs. Mattison B. Jones presiding.

The membership has now reached 45, with a number of applications to be considered. The time for joining the club as an active charter member has expired; active membership from now on will be on invitation of the membership committee of which Mrs. William Webb is chairman.

Associate charter membership is open to April 1, and anyone interested in the fostering of good music in Glendale is eligible and welcome, upon sending his name, accompanied with one dollar to the treasurer, Mrs. Warren Roberts, 617 East Elk. When the time for joining as an associate charter member expires, April 1, a small initiation fee will be charged.

Membership in Glendale Musical Club is open to both men and women.

Committees were appointed at last evening's meeting to direct the activities of the two auxiliary clubs: The Junior Club, comprising boys and girls from 14 to 20 years of age, the Juvenile, including those from 6 to 14. The committee of directors for the Junior Club includes Mmes. Spencer Robinson, Dora Gibson and Gertrude Champlain; Mrs. Frank Arnold was appointed a member of the Juvenile Club, two others to be added to this committee.

Organization of the Junior and Juvenile sections will begin at once, and it is expected that much good work in the developing of musical appreciation in the children of Glendale will be accomplished.

The following resolution, on motion of Mrs. H. N. Hagood was unanimously passed by the club:

Whereas, the object of the Glendale Music Club is to promote the advancement of music in the community, and

Whereas, such an organization requires the hearty co-operation of the schools and the citizens of the community, and

Whereas, Prof. George U. Moyse has shown an exceedingly helpful spirit of co-operation in securing the Glendale Union high school for the meetings of this organization,

Therefore, be it resolved that the Glendale Music Club, as a tribute of appreciation to Professor Moyse, shall gratefully extend to him and to Mrs. Moyse, complimentary associate membership in said organization;

Resolved, further, that copies of this resolution be sent to Professor Moyse and to the Glendale daily papers.

Regular meetings of the club will be held on the first and third Fridays; the first, to be a program evening, the third Friday, a business session.

The first program will be given on Friday, April 1; it will feature American composers and invitations will be sent to non-members. Mrs. Freeman Kelly has charge of the decorations.

The first Friday in May will be "Community Evening." The program will consist of numbers by the three federated music clubs in Glendale: The Girls' Glee Club, the Madrigal Club and the music section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club. Artists from Glendale Musical Club will also participate, and possibly members of the auxiliary clubs, the Junior and Juvenile sections. The object of this meeting is to bring closer together the various musical organizations of Glendale.

The meeting of the first Friday in June will be a banquet with a program by visiting artists. Programs for these meetings will be announced shortly.

The meeting last evening was featured by a study of the Italian opera "Othello," outlined by Mrs. Dora Gibson, and illustrated with phonograph records. The most beautiful of these were "Now Farewell, Forever," sung by Caruso; "The Willow Song" and the "Ave Maria," by Melba; "Cassio's Dream," by Ruffo; "The Drinking Song," by Scotti, and the duet by Scotti and Caruso.

Dr. Harry V. Brown and Capt Thos. D. Watson, who are being backed by their friends for the two vacancies to be filled on the high school board March 25, are popular and have friends in many circles. SOCIAL CLUBS NOT GOOD FOR STUDENTS

Representatives of Pasadena high were in Glendale, Thursday, to visit our local high school and investigate conditions with regard to social organizations within the school. It developed from their talk here that Pasadena high has 27 semi-social societies, and school authorities there think it is being carried too far and more social clubs under the guise of literary associations are being maintained than is good for students. Some are members of five or six of these associations. In Glendale high no such situation exists as the organizations within the school are almost purely departmental and include an art club, French and Spanish clubs, glee clubs, a hiking club, and so on.

RUTH RYAN GIVES DANCING PARTY

Miss Ruth Ryan of West Acacia avenue was hostess to a jolly group of high school friends at a pretty party given by her Thursday evening at the K. of P. hall on South Brand boulevard. Piano and grafonola furnished the music for dancing, which was the chief diversion of the evening. St. Patrick colors featured the decorations, the programs being printed in green. A full list of guests is not obtainable at this writing, but it included Bob, Al and Walter Sullivan, Miss Aileen Sullivan, Mildred McKee, Joe Webster, Manola Budd, Merle Budd, Robert Willis, Esther and Herbert Besant, Dorothy Hunt, Miss Martha Ray.

NEW ASSISTANT MANAGER

The appointment of V. A. Nyman as assistant manager of the Glendale avenue branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank was announced yesterday by Jay Spence, vice president and cashier.

ESSEX MAKES 22 MILES TO GALLON

No two people are alike, but there is one clever Bakersfield man who has succeeded in pleasing both himself and other people. He does this through his business, which is that of renting automobiles. "You see," he explained to Mr. Sollers, of the Sollers Motor Company of Bakersfield, of whom he purchased an Essex phaeton, "the public demand comfort and fine appearance in a car they rent, while it is necessary for me to have an economical car. These features are an admirable combination in the Essex. I obtain 22 miles to the gallon of gasoline, and the upkeep of the car has averaged less than eight cents a day, including the grinding of valves, which has been the only repair work done on this Essx. I have had the car less than a year and it has been driven 23,400 miles—all on the original set of tires.

"In the rental service a car gets the very hardest kind of usage, yet it is in such fine condition now that I cannot put a limit on the additional service I am confident it will give."

Chambers and Felts, Glendale dealers, in telling of this conversation the other day, said that Mr. Hall's opinion of the Essex was shared by the many owners of Essex cars here.

REHEARSALS OF "THE LITTLE PRINCESS"

Frances Hodgson Burnett's "Sarah Crewe, or What Happened at Miss Minchin's," is a story which many of us remember as one of the delights of our childhood; and its appeal to present-day children (and, indeed grown-ups, too), is equally great.

Rehearsals of this story under the title of "The Little Princess," are in progress by pupils of the Pearl Keller Studio, with ten-year-old Cecelia Mae Fischer in the part of Sarah Crewe.

The story was filmed a short time ago with Mary Pickford in the stellar role, and proved itself a very popular photoplay.

TO SHOW FAMOUS STUDEBAKER MOVIE

What is declared to be the most remarkable industrial film ever taken will be exhibited here Wednesday, March 23, at 9:45 a. m., at Jensen's Palace Grand Theater. It shows the complete manufacture of the Studebaker Light-Six in the newest and most modern automobile plant in the world. Arrangements to show this famous movie have been made by Packer and White Auto Company, the Studebaker distributors. Admission free.

Although of an industrial nature this movie abounds in human interest, with plenty of action and in some cases real excitement. It shows the making of Studebaker cars from the raw material down to the finished car.

On of the unusual features of this film is that special lighting and coloring effects were used in many of the scenes, making them realistic to a striking degree. Veritable miracles are performed by automatic and other ultra-modern devices that do nearly everything but talk.

A view of this movie is in some ways more interesting and inspiring than a trip through an automobile plant itself, because many details and operations which escape the eye on such a journey are caught by the camera. An educational advantage of this film is that it shows the manufacture and assembly of each individual unit in continuity. For instnce, in the making of the crankshaft each step is pictured from the forging operations down to the complete machining of this important unit. The same applies to the camshaft; motor, body and other parts.

The numerous inspections through which each part passes to insure its accuracy and quality are vividly pictured, and throughout the picture an impressive feature is the speed and efficiency with which results are secured, as well as the high type of men to whom the various tasks are allotted. All operations shown are performed in the Studebaker plant at South Bend, where the New Light-Six is manufactured complete.

PUBLIC DEMANDS EFFICIENT SERVICE

"Reports from the many automobile shows throughout the country are most encouraging," says O. W. Tarr, local dealer in Chevrolet passenger and commercial cars.

"The attendance is generally larger than in previous years. And people are showing a much keener and more critical interest.

"It is obvious that the public has learned the importance of motor transportation. The individual has been educated to the usefulness of the passenger car as necessary equipment that increases his personal efficiency just as commercial cars increase efficiency in business.

"Accordingly the greatest attention at the shows is centered on mechanical ability. People are taking a more and more practical interest in securing the utmost service for their money.

"They have come to realize that beauty is only skin deep in a motor car as in people and that real beauty is as beauty does.

"Few novelties in motor car design have been exhibited and little real interest has been accorded them. Gasoline mileage, tire mileage, simplicity of construction and operation—these are the subjects on which exhibitors have been questioned.

"And the most careful purchasers have chosen cars with known records for economical and dependable performance. For a reputation for service and satisfaction is always the best guarantee of a profitable investment in a motor car."

INVITATION TO INSPECT NEW PAINT STORE

An opening which will be of interest to a large number of citizens is being announced by Harry Moore of this city, to take place next Monday morning at 304 East Broadway, where he now has ready for inspection a fine newly-decorated store furnished with a $7000 stock of paints, varnishes and wall paper. Mr. Moore has been a contracting painter and decorator in this city for the past 10 years and has a host of friends who are glad to see him branch out in this way and will welcome the chance to call and congratulate him. He will continue to do interior decorating, paper hanging and sign writing.

There are no streets in Pennsylvania where the motorist has the right of way. When two vehicles approach an intersection at the same time, the right-hand vehicle has the precedence. The rule applies even on boulevards crossed by unimportant side streets.

NO FORDS IN THE "JUNK PILE"

"The final test of the usefulness of a motor car is to be found by a little investigation of the yards of the various automobile wrecking companies of Los Angeles. A few moments spent in looking over the 'junk-piles' of some of the establishments along Main street, will prove interesting to almost any automobile owner and should prove enlightening to some automobile engineers," says B. L. Graves, manager of the Los Angeles branch of the Ford Motor Company.

"The predominance of Ford cars on any road in the world long since ceased to be a matter of comment in the automobile industry. It would be only natural, therefore, to expect that Ford cars would predominate in the wrecking yards. When you consider that nearly one-half of all the cars that are in use are Fords, it is but natural to imagine that a similar proportion might be expected to be found in the junk yards.

"As a matter of fact, the contrary is true. In spite of the immense preponderance of Fords, it is a fact that you rarely see a Ford that finds a resting place in a junk heap. It is as rare to see a dead Ford as it is to see a dead mule, and the tradition used to exist among the farmers that mules never did die.

"The cars you find most frequently in the wrecking yards are the heavy car types, most of them of an antiquated origin. They were built in a day when weight was held essential for strength, but their weight and power failed to keep them out of the scrap heap. As soon as they were a little out of style, they were of little use, for they were too expensive for a man in moderate circumstances to operate, and the man of wealth wanted something up-to-date.

"With a Ford car the story is entirely different. It is a fact that a Ford rarely goes to a wrecking yard except as a result of some terrible smash-up that completely destroyed it. Ford repair parts are so cheap, and the car can be fixed up so easily that they simply do not rest in junk yards.

Our weekly DON'T. Gasoline is hard upon the leather upholstering of automobiles. It hardens and cracks the surface, soon ruining it altogether. Consequently, don't use gasoline to clean the leather with. The best thing to use is water containing a little ammonia.

Mr. Sutton motored here from Oklahoma in a Nash sedan, and he was so impressed with the performance of the machine that he selected the Nash as the one he would represent if he decided to go into the automobile business. Mr. Sutton has a wife and two sons and they have taken up their residence at 225 West Burchett street. Mr. Sutton was formerly in the oil business in Oklahoma, although he has had automobile experience. He is a man of high character and the Daily Press predicts that he will prove a popular and valuable member of the business circles of this charming city.

The agency and garage is hereafter to be known as the Glendale Nash Sales.

BROADWAY P.-T. A. PLANS FOR FATHERS

The meeting Thursday afternoon of the Broadway P. T. A. was one of the most interesting of the year. An instructive talk was made by Miss Ann Jenkins of Los Angeles on "The How and Why of the P. T. A." She closed with some interesting disclosures on legislation. Announcement was made that on the evening of April 3 there will be a meeting of the fathers and mothers, the object of which will be to afford the fathers an opportunity to participate in business matters before the organization. Important questions will come up for discussion, there will be a program, also games, and refreshments will be served. All members and husbands of members were urged to be present.

CHURCH OF HOLY FAMILY PALM SUNDAY

Palm Sunday will be celebrated at the Church of the Holy Family with two Masses, one at 8 a. m., the other at 10:30 a. m.

Palm Sunday, according to Catholic observance is the sixth and last Sunday of Lent and the beginning of Holy Week. The principal ceremonies of the day are the benediction of the palms, the Mass, and during it the singing of the Passion.

The gospel read on Palm Sunday, taken from St. Matthew, xvi:1-9, describes the triumphal entry of Christ into Jerusalem, when the populace cut boughs from the trees and strewed them before Him, as He passed, crying, "Hosanna to the Son of David; blessed is He that cometh in the name of the Lord.

In the five prayers that follow, the priest asks God to bless the branches of palm or olive, that they may be a protection to all places into which they may be brought, that the right hand of God may expel all adversity, bless and protect all who dwell in them, who have been redeemed by our Lord Jesus Christ. The prayers make references to the dove bringing back the olive branch to Noah's ark and to the multitude greeting our Lord; they say that the branches of palm signify victory over the prince of death, and the olive the advent of spiritual unction through Christ. The officiating clergyman sprinkles the palms with holy water, incenses them, and after another prayer, distributes them. Mass is then celebrated, the principal feature being the singing of the Passion according to St. Matthew, during which all hold the palms in their hands.

From the blessed palms the ashes are procured for Ash Wednesday. Palm branches have been used by all nations as an emblem of joy and victory over enemies; in Christianity as as sign of victory over the flesh, according to Psalm xci:13, hence especially associated with the memory of the martyrs.

WHAT CONSTITUTES EDUCATION

Ever since the human family, particularly the Anglo Saxon portion of it, advanced to the point of establishing systems of education, a never-ending debate has been carried on as to what constitutes education and what should be included in the curriculums of our public schools. In the good old days when the pioneers who made up the Massachusetts and the Virginia colonies forgot in a measure the old-world culture they had brought to these shores in their struggle for existence, it is easy to see that education for the rank and file might mean to them a sufficient knowledge of the three R's to open to their understanding the books of the Bible or the fundamentals of mechanics and accounting. The manual work they did had its value in toughening their muscles, but it also had an even greater value in that it constantly put to the test their efficiency, i. e., their manual dexterity backed by mentality. The conquering of the wilderness was a continual challenge of their powers.

When life became more complex and soft through the development of cities, and the boy was not called upon to match his strength and wits with nature, his education suffered. The schools continued to give him lengthened doses of the three R's, but nothing to take the place of that more valuable training now lost to him. The apprentice system helped to correct it in some degree, but that took the boy entirely from the school room and into a life of monotonous toil unrelieved by the unexpected. Labor unions did away with that and then the child was abandoned wholly to the three R's. The establishment of schools of technology and finally the introduction of sloyd and manual training in our common schools are but a tardy attempt to give the boy the training enjoyed by his forefathers. Any attempt to do away with this feature of our school system as something superfluous is a mistake. One of the main missions of schooling is to enable the boy to find himself. How can he know what path will coincide with his natural inclinations unless we train hand as well as head, unless we show him how to be a creator and producer?

THEFT BUREAU RAPID-FIRE WORK

Rapid-fire work on the part of the theft bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California has proved an effective curb on the activities of hold-up men throughout the southern part of the state.

Practically every county has witnessed the results of automobile club efforts to apprehend motor car thieves and bandits who steal automobiles for the purpose of using them in their night raids on outlying drug stores and grocery shops.

One of the most recent instances of this type of activity was the finding of the automobile used by the eight drug store bandits in Los Angeles. This car was stolen at 7 o'clock in the evening from in front of the owner's house. The owner at once reported the theft of the car to the automobile club. Club detectives later heard of the holding up and wounding of the Los Angeles druggist in his store at 8 o'clock.

According to description given by witnesses of the crime, the bandits were using the car which just had been reported stolen. The full force of the club's detective bureau was at once brought into action and at 2:30 o'clock in the morning the car was found on Maple avenue in Los Angeles. The owner, F. A. Hitchcock, called at the automobile club the following morning to report details of the theft and found his car waiting for him.

So gratified was he with the results of the organization's activity that he immediately took out a membership in the club and insured his automobile.

Valuable evidence in this type of crime is secured by the club's theft bureau in the recovery of automobiles used by thieves, because excellent reproductions of finger prints can be secured from the highly polished surface of the automobile bodies.

PROGRESSIVE MERIT SYSTEM ESTABLISHED

(By International News Service)

JOLIET, Ill., March 19.—Talking no longer is a punishable offense in the state penttentiary here. Prisoners hereafter may chat all they want to on the topics of the day and other innocuous subjects.

"In olden days when officials confined an inmate with only the view of punishing him for his crime the rule of silence was strictly adhered to," explained Judge C. H. Jenkins, director of public welfare. "In the long days of silence the mind of the prisoner turned to and dwelt on vicious subjects."

A "progressive merit" system also has been established. A board composed of the warden, his assistant, a psychologist and two subordinate prison officials will determine the progress of each convict.

"Each prisoner is informed what is expected of him and what he must learn before he can be freed," said John P. Whitman, superintendent of prisons.

BILL PUT IN FOR ATTENDING FUNERAL

(By International News Service)

OMAHA, Neb., March 19.—Should a man be paid for attending his brother-in-law's funeral? If so, should payment be made by the estate of the deceased brother-in-law.

These are two questions the district court here will have to decide in the case of J. L. Ogden, Chicago railroad man, who has filed a bill of $183.81 for the attendance of his wife and himself at the funeral of his brother-in-law, Dwight Haun, who died here September 26, 1920. Among the items in the $183.81 total are $77.44 for railroad fare for Odgen and his wife and wages for four days at $12.18 per day. Meals totalling $18 and cab fare of $8 also are included.

MEXICO IS NOT A POOR MAN'S COUNTRY

(By International News Service)

MEXICO CITY, March 19.—The American chamber of commerce has issued this warning: "Mexico is not a poor man's country. Laborers from outside cannot compete with the Mexican laborer. Professional men without a knowledge of Spanish and money take a long chance in coming here. There is an oversupply of school teachers, stenographers, bank clerks and such. Please advise people to this effect and save many heartaches."

ANNOUNCED POLICY OF ADMINISTRATION

(By International News Service)

CHICAGO, March 19.—Declaring that the attitude of labor throughout the controversy between employes and the railroads over the national agreements and the recently announced wage cuts has been in entire accord with President Harding's announced policy of adjusting differences before they result in conflict, B. M. Jewell, president of the railway employes department of the American Federation of Labor, went before the United States railway labor board today and again presented the case of the employes.

Jewell submitted to the board what he termed a "concrete proposal," satisfactory to labor, in which he laid down "fundamentals which constitute labor's irreducible bill of rights."

It is reported that the government was preparing for general mobilization, but this was denied by the chief of the Greek general staff in an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Athens. The situation was discussed at a meeting of the Greek cabinet.

"Under present conditions Greece is ready for any eventuality," the chief of the Greek general staff announced.

Communications From the City Manager to Trustees

Honorable board of trustees, city of Glendale, Cal.

Mrs. Bartlett and Gentlemen: Attention was called at the chamber of commerce forum today by Mr. Walter C. Fisher of Burbank that the city of Burbank and the county board of supervisors have taken proceedings for the improvement of Mountain street extending from Olive street in the city of Burbank to the Glendale boundary line in the Grand View district and that your board will be requested to take proceedings for the improvement of that portion of the street within the city of Glendale.

I would therefore respectfully recommend that the city engineer be instructed to prepare a grade ordinance establishing the grade of Grand View avenue within the Grand View district, including in such ordinance the establishment of the grades of all other streets within that district.

Honorable board of trustees, city of Glendale, Cal.

Mrs. Bartlett and Gentlemen: A contingency arose in the business section this week that seemed to justify the issuing of a permit subject to the approval of your board for the location of a cesspool in the parkway on the north side of Broadway west of Brand boulevard in front of 107 West Broadway. The cesspools serving the buildings at this location filled up and were discharging into the street gutter. The contents of these cesspools had been removed by pumping a short time before, but they filled up almost immediately. The new cesspool will be 30 feet deep and will probably relieve the situation for a time until the sewer system contemplated for business district is installed. This and many other like contingencies that are continually arising in the business district make it imperative that the sewer system planed for this district be installed at the earliest possible moment.

I might say in this connection, that petitions have been given interested property holders in the businss district, petitioning your board to take the necessary proceedings to install sewer system for the business district in accordance with plans now being prepared by the city engineer, Mr. C. L. Hill, under the supervision of Olmsted and Gillelen.

Honorable board of trustees, city of Glendale, Cal.

Mrs. Bartlett and Gentlemen: Dr. J. E. Eckles, city health officer, reported about two weeks ago that additional help was necessary at once to enable him to adequately take care of matters pertaining to health and sanitation. He stated that it is absolutely impossible for him to continue to handle all of the large volume of work that comes to his office in connection with his duties as health officer.

After conferring with the doctor in regard to this matter and taking it up informally with members of your board in committee two weeks ago, we respectfully recommend as follows:

That an allowance of $125 per month be made to cover the expense of additional services in the health department in the office of health officer for the remainder of the present fiscal year, including the month of March and that the health officer be authorized to employ additional help in accordance therewith, that two rooms adjoining Dr. Eckles' office be rented at $20 per month for the balance of the fiscal year to serve as headquarters for city health department, that an appropriation of $120 be made to cover the cost of furniture for such office and a bicycle for use of the department.

It would be much better in many respects if the work of the health department could be handled from the offices at the city hall. This could be done later on when provision is made therefor. This would require, however, considerable expenditure that is not provided for in the budget of the present year.

POSITIVE CURE FOR EPILEPTIC CASES

(By International News Service)

WORCESTER, Mass., March 19.—Michael Nicholson, formerly a medical student in Greece, says he has discovered a cure for epilepsy, of which he was at one time a victim. He came to this country three years ago from Sparta.

So confident are local men in the efficacy of Nicholson's remedy that a 14-room summer residence is being transformed into a sanitarium to administer the treatment. Dr. Stephen A. Bergin, a Worcester physician, is president of the sanitarium company, William K. Patterson is treasurer and Nicholson is secretary. The institution has been named Fernrest.

The treatment of epilepsy will be revolutionized if the medical student's tests are successful, Dr. Bergin said.

The sanitarium has its first patient. A man who was taken there has been suffering from the disease for 32 years and for the past three has been a patient in a state institution.

WORCESTER, Mass., March 19.—The sum of $10,000 in deposits in New York and Boston banks is left to Frank Flynn, presumably of Worcester, by his brother, John Flynn, who was recently found dead on the beach at St. Augustine, Fla., according to advices received by Postmaster James Healy.

Postmaster Healy has turned the matter over to Captain James J. Casey, of the detective bureau, who is conducting a state-wide search for the missing heir.

OAKLAND ECONOMY A BIG FACTOR

In this day, with economy of motor car operation as "live" a topic as the weather wherever men gather, the old controversy of the "four" vs. "six" has been revived.

Most motorists are of the fixed opinion that a six-cylindered engine must necessarily consume more gasolene than a four. The second item in "economy debates" usually concerns tire mileage and votaries of the "four" are usually strong in their contention that a "four" is lighter in weight, with consequent saving of rubber.

Admitting his prejudice in favor of the six, Mr. Max L. Green, who directs the local activities of the Oakland Motor Car Company of Pontiac, Mich., asks four-cylinder champions to consider several things in connection with this economy idea that may add fuel to the fire of argument.

"The 'four' must travel in first and intermediate speed more often than the 'six'—I think all will agree to that," is the way he introduces his statements.

"And it must be admitted that more gasoline is consumed in traveling in first or second than in high. It cannot be denied that a light-weight, highly efficient, overhead valve engine will pick up easier and with less labor and gear shifting than a 'four. If this were not true I think all cars would be 'fours' as it costs less to build them.

"Well, in this continual gear shifting, running in first or second, hard laboring and such, more gasoline is wasted than in anything except a broken feed line or punctured tank.

"Why, do you imagine that the Oakland could assemble its '18 to 20 miles on a gallon' testimony on anything except this fact?

"Now, as to tire mileage. You will hear a great deal about light cars—particularly one make or 'four'—getting tire mileages that read like a wild cat tire maker's boasting. No automobile can run without wearing down tires, even the most rabid adherents of the 'four' will admit that. But tire economy comes from correct light-weight design with tires of a size to give the most efficient traction, cushioning and buoyancy to that weight.

"At the same time tires can be too much oversize. Unrequired weight in tires affects the 'nimbleness' of the car. Consequently, the owner loses money by waste of gasoline. The car must be correctly designed with gravity center so fixed as to minimize skidding, one of the great expenses of tire upkeep.

"The tire must be such as to safely, buoyantly carry the car without raising a blowout hazard.

"Those facts enter into the question of which is the most economical to operate—a four or a six—for it is in the advanced light six that we find the most improved combination of desirable features for economical operation.

"It is these features that enable us to handle so successfully a six-cylinder car of good wheelbase, ample power, great riding comfort and—above all other things—economy of operation.

"That's the reason for my contention that an efficient light six is more economical than the ordinary 'four'."

Don't All Speak at Once

If some ambitious Waukomis boy wishes to learn the printing trade by starting in as a pres feeder, he can find employment at the Hornet office. You may ultimately become as famous as The Hornet man, and also make as much money as he has during the past year, which is somewhere between sixty-four thousand dollars and seventy-three cents.—Oklahoma Hornet.

True, women's clothes still cost a good deal. But, then, just think what they have to show for it!—Washington Post.

FOLLOW PRETTY ANKLES TO CELLAR

(By International News Service)

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 19.—Cellar smellers are passe.

They are being replaced by "ankle sighters," following revealment of a new "stunt" by Kansas City "wets."

Policemen Jenkins and Chandler, watching the afternoon crowds on Main street, "sighted" six pairs of dainty ankles gingerly descending steps into a basement pool room.

"Wonder what kind of a game they're playing now," said one "ankle sighter" to the other. "Let's see."

Instead of billiards they found "hooch." The six dainty pairs of ankles were distributed around a cigar stand on which stood a bottle of "corn whiskey." Behind the case was a whiskey glass.

HELD THREE ACES IN POKER GAME

(By International News Service)

WILLARD SERVICE HAS NEW MAN

Henry M. Kuhn, formerly connected with the Willard Storage Battery Company of Cleveland, O., and later as operator of the Willard Service Station at Grand Rapids, Mich., has acquired an interest in the local Willard Station with E. W. Cizek, at the corner of Brand boulevard and Colorado.

Mr. Kuhn has been in the storage battery business for the past 10 years, having been in almost every department of the Willard factory, and later as their traveling representative.

"I looked over all of Southern California and this town of Glendale looks good to me, both for business and a home," says Mr. Kuhn.

Mr. Kuhn is thoroughly familiar with all angles of the storage battery business, and is very anxious to tell the people of Glendale what he knows about storage batteries, and especially about the merits of the Willard, with "thread rubber insulation," made exclusively by the Willard Storage Battery Company.

Glendale's base ball team was disappointed in the outcome of its game with Franklin High's team Friday evening, the initial one of the season. Our boys did excellent work, but they were matched against a strong, well-organized nine and the contest ended in a score of 15 to 10 in favor of Franklin.

Ford

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

That Dependable Ford Quality

FORD durability began back in 1903, when Henry Ford started experimenting with Vanadium steel and heat-treated processes. He knew that a more exacting tempering of steel for motor car building must be worked out. Vanadium, it was learned, when added to molten steel, gives to that steel a greater toughness and adhesiveness. And now other alloys have been found which are superior to Vanadium. With the Ford Motor Company constant progress is the daily companion. The Ford products—Car, Truck, Tractor—grow in quality daily. Heat-treating tempers each part so that it will best withstand the wear to tear to which it is subjected. Ford chemists and analysts have created formulas and standard specifications for every individual part of the Ford car—not only for the steel but for everything from pneumatic tires to top.

Ford durability isn't a matter of accident. It is a matter of painstaking thoroughness in laboratory and factory. The Ford is a car of precision—of standardized values. Order your Ford car now. No matter how fast they may be made the demand multiplies faster. Order today, for we can make fairly prompt deliveries—Runabout, Touring Car, Coupe, Sedan, Truck and Fordson Tractors.

GREEN AND WHITE IRISH LUNCHEON

One of the prettiest functions of the season was the five-course luncheon given Thursday noon by Mrs. A. H. Montgomery at her charming home on South Central. It was a St. Patrick affair and the two large tables around which the guests gathered were beautifully decorated in the colors emblematic of the Irish saint. They were centered with carnations and sweet peas artificially tinted with green, with a scattering of the blossoms over the cloth. The place cards bore pictures of Irish castles and the emerald nut baskets were filled with green and white candles. Shades were drawn low and under the soft glow of electric lights the loveliness of the scene was enhanced. Following the luncheon the ladies were entertained with bridge and five hundred. High going to Mrs. Rudy. At five hundred Mrs. Kelley was the fortunate winner of high score, Mrs. Van Dyke receiving the consolation favors. The hostess was assisted by her daughter, Miss Manola Budd. Her guests were: Mrs. Emking of Hollywood, Mrs. L. B. Stanton of Los Angeles, Mrs. C. E. Norton, Mrs. C. M. Van Dyke, Mrs. Walter Jones, Mrs. Roscoe Puffer, Mrs. Charles Marlenee, Mrs. William Kelley, Mrs. E. AMERICAN LEGION NOT IN POLITICS

Editor of Press:

It has been brought to our attention recently, that there is an impression existing in the minds of some Glendale citizens that the American Legion, as an organization, is supporting the candidacy of two of its members for the position of high school trustee.

We deem it advisable, as heretofore, to again state to the public that, regardless of our personal opinions, the Legion does not enter into politics.

For the information of those who are interested, it can be stated that three of the four present candidates for high school trustee are ex-service men.

EMIL O. KIEFER,
Chairman of the executive committee of the American Legion.

GOOD DRILL OF NATIONAL GUARD

The Glendale infantry company of the California National Guard had a very successful and creditable drill Tuesday evenig on the high school grounds. Major Vestal was present and talked to the men for about 15 minutes defining the results to be desired in the use of the military rifle and the methods commonly used to obtain the results. He then gave individual instruction to a few men in sighting exercises. The same work will be continued for several weeks. The company officers are preparing themselves to assist in giving instruction and Major Vestal predicts that in a very short time they will be able to do the work alone.

QUEER PROBLEMS OF AUTO CAMPS

City Forester Marek Reports Facts Disclosed at Meeting of Commissioners

City Forester Marek, who represented Glendale at a convention of superintendents of parks and municipalities of Southern California, held at Pasadena this week, reports a very enthusiastic meeting which brought out some interesting facts. A ride was given delegates around Pasadena and they were then taken to Brookside park, where sessions were held. From the reports it appeared that the maintenance of an auto camp ground problems. Pasadena seemed to have the worst one because, to relieve the house-shortage situation she had permitted citizens to use the camp ground and the privilege had been abused. In a few instances persons who owned property had rented it at large figures and then lived rent free on the campground at the expense of the city.

So many of these camp grounds have been established that tourists have been spoiled and converted into carping critics who compare the advantages of one over another. To meet this annoyance a committee of five was appointed to draft a series of regulations which could be adopted by all and thus get unanimity of action. Then the tourists traveling from one community to another would not be able to make invidious comparisons. Representatives of the Auto Club of Southern California were represented on the committee which is to report back to the various municipalities represented at the convention.

GREAT PROGRAM AT GLENDALE THEATER

It may be seen at the Glendale Theater tonight for the last time. Many pronounce it far superior in every way to "Humoresque," in which Miss Gordon played the role of the mother.

As Mrs. Lantini, the mother of the little family whose fortunes form the background of the story, she plays a role similar to that which made her name a household word in "Humoresque." With her in the cast are Sally Crute, William H. Tooker, Fannie Shelton, and Jessie Simpson, Bobby Connelly and Dot Williams take the children's roles.

JAMES W. FOLEY PLEASES AUDIENCE

Men and Women Laugh and Eyes Grow Moist Over His Humor and Pathos

The public was not misled when it was promised a delightful evening of wit, humor, pathos and philosophy in the lecture given Friday evening at the Masonic Temple by James W. Foley, poet and all around friend. He came under the auspices of the literary section of the Tuesday Afternoon Club and as a benefit for the clubhouse fund.

His pleasant personality, his engaging little affectations, the modesty with which he received the appreciative applause of his audience invested his performance with an added charm. His numbers were preceded by a piano program put on by Miss H. May Smith of Toronto, Can., who was introduced by Mrs. Williams, curator of the literary section and chairman of the evening. The interpretations of Paderewski's famous minuet, of Schutt's "Canzonetta" and of "Waltz in D. Flat," by Chopin, were pleasing and won generous applause.

Mr. Foley, also introduced by Mrs. Williams, defined himself as "a sane idealist," a man who "keeps his eyes on the stars and his feet on the ground." He declared that everything of any great value that is accomplished in this world is based on some powerful sentiment. The spur that sent men over the top in the world war was a great sentiment. He also said he is a great believer in the gospel of work which he argues not only enriches the world, but enlarges and enriches the worker. Genius he defined as specialized and enthusiastic energy. Mr. Foley also made it clear that he believes in "intelligent unselfishness" and in the gospel of happiness. He even went so far as to say that no person can be happy and not be good enough for any social order, and that happiness is always waiting for us.

In its basic appeal the lecture was a plea for helpful friendliness that will reach not only our neighbor and the man in the street, but all around the world.

In his child poems Mr. Foley is especially happy and he began his reading with one of these about the homesick boys at a boarding school —"Wish I Was in Beavertown." He also read "Chums" and "Somebody Did," and a rhymed story about a dead dog. "The Interrupted Prayer," "Did You Let Him Go By With His Load?," "Yanks," "The Way to Galilee," "Why," an amusing skit on how his poems are written, and "The Tale of a Trail," all drew spontaneous applause and the humorous ones were accompanied by the hearty laughter of the audience—the sincerest tribute a lecturer can have.

LECTURE ON DREAMS AND PREMONITIONS

L. W. Rogers, national president of the Theosophical Society, will speak in I. O. O. F. hall, Glendale, Sunday and Monday, March 20 and 21. This will be a rare opportunity for Glendale people, as these two lectures are the only ones that Mr. Rogers will deliver in this vicinity.

Mr. Rogers comes with two very popular subjects: "Dreams and Premonitions," Sunday evening; "The Evolution of the Soul," Monday evening. If a suitable hall can be found for Tuesday it is hoped that the speaker will give his lecture on "The Path of Holmes."

Mr. Rogers is a speaker of unusual personality and grouping power. His audiences are always large and appreciative. This is an excellent opportunity, two excellent lectures free of charge.

WELCOME GIVEN LOCAL DELEGATES

Report comes to us from "Glen and Dale" at the Whittier convention of Christian Endeavorers that the Glendale delegates were heartily welcomed on their arrival in Whittier. The streets were decorated in the Christian Endeavor colors and the places of meeting were also decorated with palms and flowers. In the main auditorium a large sign across the center of the balcony advertised the Glendale convention, June 25 to 29, and the Glendale society banners were much in evidence in conspicuous places Our booth at Whittier is manned by Glendalians and has a conspicuous place in the auditorium. At 10 o'clock this morning there were over 50 delegates from Glendale and many more arriving hourly. The special train from Glendale Friday carried a happy crowd who were properly "tagged" with Glendale sombreros as soon as they entered the train.
